The meeting centered around the Pathways to Employment debriefing. Some of the ideas discussed were:

The ideas were:

- To have a better venue for next year.
- To do more publicity and outreach to the target population
- Select a venue easier to get to by bus
- Shorten the time between registration and workshops starting
- Fewer workshops
- Send thank you notes to each teacher whose room was used send an intro letter prior to the event
- Better train the police cadets
- Send something to presenters
- Generate certificates and thank you's on envelopes that were sent out
- Send something to the presenter's superiors
- Give $50.00 to Mike Amalfatano as a thank you for doing the sound
- Start at 8:30
- Shorter workshops
- 2 hours for the afternoon not 3
- Book the # of pizzas ahead and pay ahead – not on the day of
- Offer bananas not oranges
- Had 4 large coffee carafes – not enough – came from Sacred Grounds
- Get more students from all schools on the committee

The event came with lots of positive feedback:

- Mock interviews were the highlight of the event
- Presenter's room – outstanding
- Police cadets – big asset to event
- Classrooms were great
- LAUSD was very accommodating

The service award was discussed and Barbara will check with Kristina as to where the flyer is that was made. If she can not locate it, a new one will be generated
