Listening Session

The Los Angeles City Planning Department is embarking on one of the City's largest planning initiatives to date: re:code LA, a comprehensive revision of LA's outdated zoning code. First adopted in 1946, the current Code has grown from a simple, 84-page pamphlet to an unwieldy, 600+ page book that inadequately realizes a 21st Century vision of a better Los Angeles for all residents.

- Dynamic Web-Based Zoning Code — Clear and predictable Code that better meets the City's current and future needs, and that also provides an interactive on-line experience
- Guide to Zoning — Quick reference, easy-to-read guide to the new Code's land use and development regulations
- Unified Downtown Development Code — New zoning tools customized for the heart of Los Angeles, Downtown

Announcements & Networking with City Representatives, Citywide Neighborhood Council and Community Representatives
