Committee Members not in attendance Chris Valle, Daisy Zaarour

Public Comment/Non Agenda Item:

None.

Agenda Item: Pathways to Employment Update:

Laurie advised on progress. Also, that she is still looking for a voter registration participant

Agenda Item: Science Center

Chris provided the following update via text message:

We're going to prepare a report but right now the conversation is about a STEAM magnet for 6-8th grades that has resources for elementary grades. Nothing is set but they are not selling the land and it is not going to be a charter. It appears it is most likely to be retooled as a top-tier facilities for K-8. Still in talking stage

Agenda Item: Discussion Regarding Youth Community Service Award

The committee made some changes to application. It was decided to have a date for submission by June 1.

Agenda Item: Advocate Distribution Update/Articles Pending

Bob did a presentation explaining the challenges of distributing the newsletter to all of our stakeholders. We are charged according to mail carriers routes and cannot specify certain buildings. The cost to increase all stakeholders into the specific carriers routes would be prohibitive and would cover a vast majority of other council stakeholders. Further discussion and investigation of alternative delivery options is pending.

Agenda Item: Election Day Event

It was decided we will combine the Rain Barrel event being planned by the Sustainability Committee into the Election Day Event. Matthew suggested One Ten South as a possible band for the event and Darlene suggested Dave Widow. We will look into cost. Darlene reached out to Ryan in Busciano's office to check on the use of the City stage. It is still to be determined whether a stage will be available.

Matthew suggested a classic car show and said he would contact people he knows who have classic cars.

Darlene suggested pet adoptions and also possible a fire truck for the kids to explore.

The event is still in the creative stages of the planning process.

Agenda Item: NWSPNC Logo Contest

Matthew will be discussing with his Graphic Arts teacher the parameters of the new NWSPNC logo contest.
